Sheraton Raleigh Hotel - Located in the heart of downtown Raleigh, this hotel is at the crossroads between historical and high-tech, bluegrass and Broadway, hushpuppies and cappuccino. From this central location, it's easy to explore famous museums, major universities, and the Research Triangle Park, secure in the knowledge that the Sheraton Raleigh is waiting to welcome you back in the singular style and comfort that you would expect. A 2014 Top New and Renovated Meeting Space award winner by Convention South Magazine, the Sheraton Raleigh offers ultra-comfortable guest rooms, newly refreshed meeting & event space and the ultimate Starwood experience.

Pre-Convention Tour “After Four Long Years” Located in Durham, The Bennett Place State Historic Site will be the destination for the Pre-Convention tour. Beginning with a tour of Oakwood Cemetery in Raleigh, guests will then travel to Durham to visit the Bennett Place. The Visitor's Center includes a museum, auditorium, and gift shop. The movie Dawn of Peace will be shown which is the site's premiere film followed by a tour of the Bennett House. Re-enactors will be on site for demonstration. A BBQ lunch will be catered on the grounds in the picnic area.

Men's Tour “Take a Trip to Fayetteville” - Visit the Airborne and Special Operations Museum as well as the Museum of Cape Fear which includes the Fayetteville Arsenal. The Airborne & Special Operations museum offers free admission, a main exhibit gallery, temporary gallery, four-story tall theater, video theater. There is also a motion ride simulator for an additional $7.00 charge onsite showcasing five military experiences. The Confederacy used the Fayetteville arsenal to produce rifles, ammunition, and gun carriages. Union troops, commanded by Gen. William T. Sherman, destroyed the facility in 1865. Visitors can explore the site, which contains extant ruins with explanation signage; a steel semblance of the Northwest tower called the "ghost" tower; and two Civil War Trail markers.

Magazine Luncheon “Lunch with Mary Anna Morrison Jackson” Enjoy a first person interpretation of Mrs. Jackson by our very own Kelly Hinson.

Historical Evening This is a very special evening with the Military Service Awards Bestowal Ceremony. Please plan to attend to hear a wonderful speaker for the Historical Evening. Special music will also be provided.

Memorial Service This year’s Memorial’s Service will be held at the host Hotel in the Hannover Ballrooms. Following the service, there will be a reception in the Mezzanine. A treat for this Sunday afternoon will be a Trolley Tour “Take a Trolley” to ride thru downtown Raleigh with a stop at the NC Division Headquarters House. Tours will be staggered at designated times. This event is FREE but you must register to attend. Seating is limited.

Friendship Evening “Support the Troops” A casual, relaxing evening with a Patriotic theme for 2015! We’ll meet together, eat together and raise funds together. Special emphasis on today’s troops including Wounded Warriors. Please join us for this festive evening by wearing something Red, White, and Blue and enjoy the Special Entertainment.

Post-Convention Tour “A Special Outing in Eastern North Carolina” End your visit in the Tar Heel state with this educational and fun tour! A day trip down east will bring you to Kinston, home of The CSS Neuse Civil War Interpretive Center which tells Eastern North Carolina’s Civil War story with the Confederate ironclad as its centerpiece. You will see up close the remnants of the ironclad gunboat CSS Neuse, a product of the Confederate navy's ill-fated attempt to regain control of the lower Neuse River and retake the city of New Bern during the Civil War. Then discover NC wines at the winery that jump started the industry in North Carolina - Duplin Winery - including a tour, tasting and food!
